

The Tale of Two Seekers

SEEKER ▶ Nicodemus the Pharisee      the woman at the well

Scripture

John 3

John 4

Gender

Male

Female

Ethnicity

Jew

Samaritan

Reputation

Impeccable

Immoral

Offer of Salvation

Second Birth

Living Water

Barrier to Salvation

Pride

Past

Lesson for Us

We can never be spiritual enough to erase our need for Him

We can never be sinful enough to erase His love for us

"Dear God, despite the great blessing of my heritage of faith, I have broken Your commands and deserve Your judgment . . .

"Dear God, despite the great heartache of my painful past, You love me because You are a God of mercy and grace . . .

Have you ever applied these lessons to your own life?

Yes, I have.

If so, thank Him right now for His wonderful gift to you.

No, I haven't.

If not, consider choosing one of the prayers on the left that best expresses your heartfelt response. No matter where your prayer begins, it will end at the foot of Christ's cross.

" . . . I am a sinner in need of a Savior. I believe that Jesus paid the price for my sins, and I place my confident trust in the finished work of His death, burial, and resurrection. Thank You for quenching the thirst of my soul and making me part of Your family of faith. In Jesus' name, Amen."

